Japan's biggest newspaper, Asahi Shimbun, reported today that Prince Norodom Sihanouk, the deposed Cambodian chief of state, told it that Chinese Premier Chou En-lai and North Vietnamese Premier Tran Van Dong have discouraged him from returning to Cambodia at the present time.

Sihanouk, in a written reply to questions submitted by the newspaper's correspondent in Peking, said the two premiers told him "the conditions for safety are still inadequate in the liberated area" meaning the part taken over by the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese. It includes most of the northern half of Cambodia.

Asked about reports that Mao Tse-tung has promised Sihanouk's supporters Chinese military and financial aid to overthrow the Cambodian government of Premier Lon Nol within three years, Sihanouk replied: "China promised aid to win the war, whether it takes one or 20 years."

Rigid Bus Inspections Advocated

WASHINGTON (AP) — Citing recent accidents which resulted in several deaths and scores of injuries, Transportation Secretary John A. Volpe says the government has stepped up its inspections of interstate buses.

His announcement Monday said the program would involve at least 5,000 buses in the next 60 days, with special emphasis on charters.

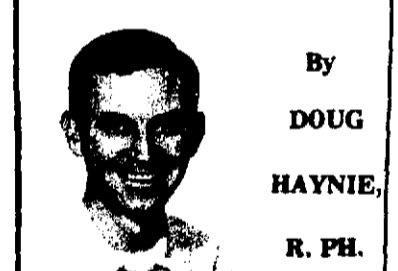

Early results show many buses already ordered to garages for repairs, he said.

The inspection drive is being concentrated at national and historic points of interest, since the tourist season is in full swing.

"This effort is designed to assure that buses in unsafe conditions are taken off the highways until all necessary repairs are made," Volpe said.

A charter bus Monday plunged down a mountainside at Hillsville, Va., killing one occupant and injuring 41. A group of young Chicago-area drum and bugle corps members were aboard.

Weather Is Cooler After Showers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cooler weather accompanied shower activity in Arkansas today. The cooler temperatures were enjoyed in many sections of the state even though the showers and thundershowers were confined to the Northwest and North Central sections of the state.

A weak, upper air low pressure trough extending from East Oklahoma into the upper Mississippi Valley was responsible for the shower activity.

The trough was expected to continue moving slowly eastward, bringing a decrease in shower activity over Arkansas by Wednesday night.

The Weather Bureau says widely scattered afternoon thundershowers should begin again Thursday and continue through Saturday.

Skies are expected to remain cloudy to partly cloudy in most portions of the state through Wednesday.

Highs Monday ranged from 100 at Texarkana to 92 at Jonesboro.

Overnight lows included 71 at Fayetteville, 74 at Harrison, 70 at Jonesboro, 71 at Pine Bluff, 72 at Texarkana, 72 at El Dorado, 74 at Memphis, 72 at Little Rock and 72 at Fort Smith.

Trio Refuses to Waive Extradition

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Three Little Rock men arrested here Thursday in connection with the strangulation death of June B. Shillcutt at his drugstore in Little Rock refused Monday to waive extradition and return voluntarily to Arkansas.

Little Rock Asst. Police Chief Nick Heard said the city would begin extradition proceedings against the three as soon as papers could be filed.

The three were identified as Tony Anthony, 19, his brother Charlie, 17, and Robert Baggett, 21. They were arrested in New Orleans and charged with the murder of Shillcutt and robbery of Shillcutt Drug Co.

Governor's Dog Carried Plague Fleas

By LARRY CALLOWAY

Associated Press Writer
SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — Gov. David F. Cargo says fleas infected with bubonic plague have been found on his family's mongrel dog, Snoopy.

But Cargo said the dog had been completely defleeced and health officials said there was little chance of the governor's family contracting the dread disease.

Cargo acknowledged reluctantly Monday that Snoopy had been found harboring fleas infected with the scourge that decimated the population of Europe in the Middle Ages.

"He's been completely defleeced," Cargo said. "They've had some trouble with the plague in the neighborhood and took some precautions on it."

The affluent residential area in the hills north of Santa Fe, site of the governor's residence, produced last week New Mexico's fifth case of the plague this year. The unidentified 20-year-old woman was reported recovering.

Health officials were edgy Monday about saying whose dog had the plague.

Neil Weber, director of the vector control unit of the department, would say only that the dog was tested during a "routine surveillance."

He saw no danger to the family where the dog was found but acknowledged: "If the fleas hop off and bite a person, there's a chance the person will be infected." He said a medical check of the Cargo family was negative.

Asked if the dog was his, Cargo acknowledged that Snoopy's fleas were less than ordinary.

Weber said bubonic plague in its early stages, if diagnosed correctly, is easily cured with antibiotics. Dogs, he said, have a built-in immunity. He said there was nothing to connect the Cargo dog with detected cases of the plague.

No other state has had more detected cases of bubonic plague among humans in the past two years than this sparsely populated southwestern state.

Health officials say the five cases so far this year in New Mexico and the five last year don't represent the entire incidence of the disease because many cases are cured by random doses of antibiotics before they are diagnosed.

All the New Mexico cases have resulted from contact with wild rabbits and rodents or their fleas, Weber said.

Recruiting Black Sailors Unsuccessful

By ROBERT A. DOBKIN

AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite efforts begun three years ago to recruit more blacks, the Navy officer corps remains a virtual lily-white organization with Negroes accounting for less than one per cent of the Navy's 80,000 officers.

There are only 539 blacks above the rank of ensign wearing Navy blue and gold, about double the number three years ago.

"Accelerated tokenism," says Lt. Commander Robert L. Toney, a black officer given the job of selling the Navy to the Negroes and other minority group members.

Although Toney and another Negro recruiting officer, Lt. Commander Melvin Patridge, are critical of what they say has been the Navy's less than full-hearted effort, they lay the biggest blame on the Navy's image and competition with private industry.

"The Navy has an image problem that it hasn't been able to overcome," says Toney, explaining that blacks still think of the Navy as a place for cooks and mess stewards.

That was the Navy's image before World War II when the only opportunity for blacks was to be cooks, mess stewards or stevedores. Since then, the Navy integrated its ranks and considered Negroes for equal promotion. The Army, Air Force and Marines did the same.

Through the years, however, the Navy has traditionally trailed its sister services with the lowest percentage of Negroes in its ranks. Defense Department figures

Witness Saw Talks Urban Renewal Defendant as Devil

By LINDA DEUTSCH
Associated Press Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — On the dark night of the Sharon Tate murders, Linda Kasabian says, she had "visions" that Charles M. Manson was "the devil" and that he might kill her and her infant daughter.

The petite, blonde witness at the Tate murder trial, testifying for the 16th day, said on the stand Monday that she kept quiet about the murders she'd seen because "I was afraid maybe Charlie would kill me and kill my little girl."

Fear for her baby, Tanya, then 1½, began as she fled down a grassy slope from the actress' mansion a year ago.

"Again I had a vision, yeah, sort of a vision, and Charlie entered into my head and Tanya was there and I was sort of afraid for Tanya's life," Mrs. Kasabian said. At the time Tanya and Manson were at the ranch where Manson's hippie-style group lived, she said.

At the bottom of the hill, she said, she lay down in the grass to catch her breath and thought of reporting the murders, but didn't.

"I was afraid. I thought police were pigs ... I was afraid everybody would say I was crazy and maybe Charlie would kill me and my little girl."

Earlier, she said, another "vision" came to her as she watched mortally wounded Wojciech Frykowski stumble from the house. Frykowski was one of five persons killed at the Tate mansion.

"All of a sudden I saw within myself what Charles Manson was doing and that he was leading myself (sic) into self-destruction," she said. "I felt he was the devil."

Mrs. Kasabian, 21, began her testimony about the visions under a recross-examination by Ronald Hughes, attorney for Leslie Van Houten, 20. She and Manson, 35, are on trial with Susan Atkins, 21, and Patricia Krenwinkel, 22, charged with murdering Miss Tate and six others, including a Los Angeles couple killed the night after the Tate slayings.

Hughes elicited testimony that the witness believes she is "an emissary from God," on a mission to show the world that Manson is "the devil" and a "false prophet."

Mrs. Kasabian added, "I don't think I'm an angel. I know I have a lot of imperfections, so I don't see how I could be."

In indirect examination, Deputy Dist. Atty. Vincent Bugliosi resumed questioning on the young mother's fascination with Manson and her earlier belief he was Jesus Christ.

She learned his philosophy, she said, during dinner discussions with Manson's "family" at the Spahn Ranch.

As the group ate, she said, Manson would do most of the talking.

"He talked about the ego and the soul. That the ego should die and the soul never knows the word 'no' or 'don't.' ... Once he said Jesus Christ and the devil were in one body, something like that ..."

"He used to say, never ask why. And he would add, love will never die."

Body of Man Found in Bull Shoals

HARRISON, Ark. (AP) — Authorities say the body of Kenneth H. Delaney, 54, of Harrison was found floating in Bulls Shoals Lake near here late Monday.

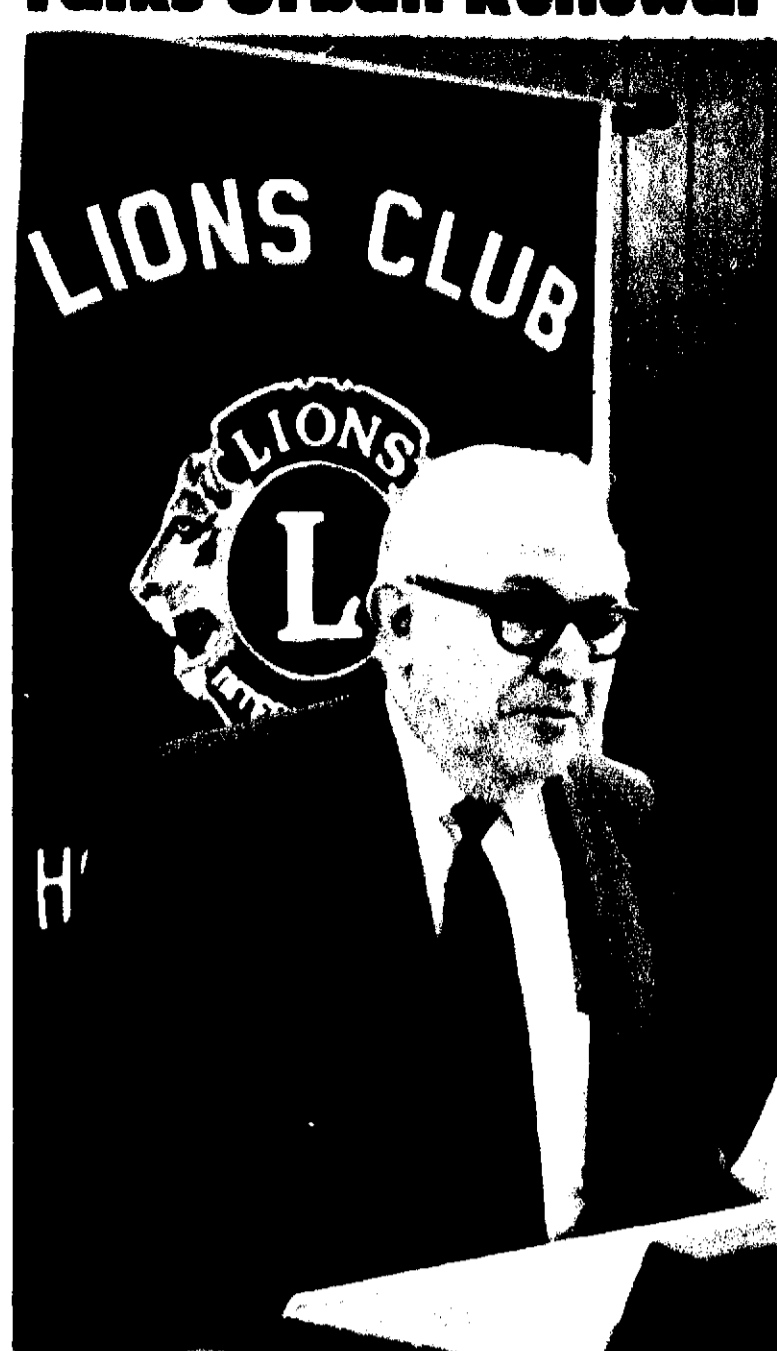

Deputy Sheriff John Maxwell of Boone County said Delaney told friends he was going fishing Sunday morning. He had not been seen since.

Maxwell said the investigation was continuing into the cause of Delaney's death.

released last week show 5,379 (3.2 per cent) blacks in the Army's officer corps, 2,267 (1.7 per cent) in the Air Force and 308 (1.2 per cent) in the Marines. In the Navy it's less than half of one per cent.

Three years ago, the Navy, aware of its traditional low standing, created the office of Minority Officer Recruiting Effort with the acronym of MORE. Toney was put in charge. The Navy also established an office of Minority Affairs under Patridge's direction. Both are trying to reach into the nation's ghettos to sell the Navy as a career.

Talks Urban Renewal

Mike Kelly, executive director of the Urban Renewal and Development Commission, brought the Hope Lions Club up to date on the commission's progress in Hope during the weekly luncheon Monday, Aug. 17, at the Town and Country Restaurant.

In reviewing the work, Mr. Kelly said a start was made possible with a grant of $88,000 three years ago. This was used in surveys and studies which resulted in a plan for urban renewal covering 77 acres bounded by the Missouri-Pacific Railroad on the north and 6th Street on the south and the L&A Railroad on the west. This area includes parts of the business section and residential areas as well.

Ervin Leads Women's Equal Rights Drive

By JOHN CHADWICK

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., who says he wants to give women the best of both worlds, is leading an attack against the House version of a constitutional amendment to guarantee women equal rights with men.

The North Carolina Democrat, considered one of the Senate experts on the Constitution, has no quarrel with the portion of the House-passed amendment that invalidates laws discriminating against women.

But he plans to introduce Wednesday a substitute that also would retain laws designed to protect women. This provision, for example, would continue to exempt the fairer sex from the draft.

He said in an interview that if the amendment passed by the House last week by a 350-15 vote should be approved by the Senate and ratified by the states, it would create chaos in the field of constitutional law.

He said constitutional lawyers with whom he has consulted say the proposed amendment—which has been pending in Congress 47 years—either means nothing or would have the effect of invalidating all federal and state laws making any distinction between men and women.

"I don't know which is the correct position," Ervin said, but if the latter interpretation is correct, adoption of the amendment "would leave a vacuum that only could be filled by subsequent acts of Congress and the state legislatures."

On Ervin's motion, the Senate Judiciary Committee voted late Wednesday to take testimony from constitutional authorities and explore all legal ramifications of the House-passed amendment.

Editor Fired Over Razor Blade Incident

By RICHARD BEENE

Associated Press Writer

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The editor of the Lackland Air Force Base newspaper, who notified a U.S. senator when 15 airmen were ordered to slash a general's photograph from 10,000 copies of the paper, said today he was fired once before from his present job.

Sgt. John Polich, 24, formerly a newsmen with the Arizona Republic, said he and the assistant editor of Lackland's "Tale Spinner," Jim Palmer, formerly a sportswriter with the Fort Worth, Tex., Star-Telegram, were temporarily relieved of duty earlier this year.

They were sent to another section, where they "addressed envelopes" for about six weeks, Polich of Las Vegas, Nev., said. He said they were fired because, among other reasons, base information officials did not like the way articles were displayed.

They were reinstated about two months ago, Polich said. Then came what some call "Operation Razor Blade" and Palmer again was fired.

The razor blade incident grew out of a photo of Maj. Gen. John S. Samuel, his wife, and another general.

Lackland information officers said that the cropping was inappropriate and ordered 15 airmen to cut the photo out of 10,000 copies of the paper with razor blades, Polich said. He said it took about six hours.

The airmen were "dumb-founded by the order but they immediately complied," Polich said. "I spent the day trying to stop it through administrative channels."

Polich later wrote to Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., who demanded an explanation from the Air Force. Proxmire said it was a "violation of freedom of the press and a waste of the taxpayers' money."

Palmer said he cropped the picture so it would fit into a very narrow space in the paper. He said the incident "amounts to censorship."

"It was unnecessary, time consuming and a waste of the taxpayers' money," he said, emphasizing he was speaking as an individual.

"I was ordered to run it," Palmer said. "Most of the paper was pretty well wrapped up and I said there was no space in the paper for it. But I was ordered to run it anyway."

When the photo appeared, "I was told this represented a kick in the teeth to the new general," Palmer said, adding that no snub was intended. He said he was dismissed as assistant editor and assigned as a special projects writer.

Lackland spokesmen confirmed the incident but said they would have no formal statement until they received a copy of Proxmire's letter to Air Force Secretary Robert C. Seamans Jr.

L.R. Told to Produce Plan to Integrate

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — U.S. District Judge J. Smith Henley said Monday the Little Rock School District could not open its junior high schools this fall unless the district produced a plan by Sept. 1 to eliminate "racially identifiable" junior high schools over the next two years.

Henley, however, approved in essence the district's zoning plan for elementary and high schools. Schools are scheduled to open Sept. 8.

In separate rulings, the judge approved the North Little Rock School District's desegregation plan for 1970-71 with the provision that the district phase out Jones Junior High School within the next two years, and approved most of the Pulaski County School District's desegregation plan for this fall.

In the order concerning the Little Rock district, Henley said that "closing or pairing of (junior high) schools, or both" plus transportation of large numbers of students would be necessary because of the large number of junior high schools and Little Rock residential patterns.

Henley said the district would have to make "very substantial progress" for its proposal for the junior highs to be accepted.

"If the proposal is approved, the junior high schools will be able to open on schedule," Henley said. "If the proposal is not approved, the opening of these schools will have to be postponed until an acceptable proposal is submitted."

Henley modified the Pulaski County School District's plan by ordering the district to assign Negro students from the College Station area to McClellan High School and Cloverdale Junior High School.

O'Neal-McClellan Wedding

Miss Linda Jo O'Neal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Benjamin O'Neal, and James Stephan McClellan, son of Mrs. Stanley Martin Keyes of Little Rock and the late James Howard McClellan, pledged their marriage vows on Saturday, August 15 in the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church.

The Rev. Norris Steele performed the ceremony beneath an arch of greenery that was centered with a bronze cross and flanked by 7-branched candelabra. The tapers were lighted by Benny O'Neal, brother of the bride, and Jack Fountain. Mrs. B.C. Hyatt, organist, played a program of pre-nuptial music and accompanied the soloist, Miss Debbie Watson, who sang "Eternal Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

As the traditional strains of the wedding march sounded, Miss O'Neal entered on the arm of her father. She wore a peau de sole Empire silhouette. Pearl embroidered lace accented the wedding ring neckline, and her long sleeves ended in lily points over her hands. The train extended from the waistline of the dress. A satin rose encrusted with seed pearls held her veil of illusion in place. The bride carried a crescent bouquet of fleur d'amour and English ivy centered with a yellow orchid.

The bride's honor attendants were Mrs. John H. Schooley, Jr. of Dallas and Miss Cathy Feild. They wore yellow whipped cream lawn fashioned with an Empire waistline and puffed sleeves. They had matching bows in their hair and carried cascade bouquets of daisies.

Dressed in similar fashion and carrying daisies were the bridesmaids, Miss Melinda McClellan of Little Rock, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Bobbie Nichols and Miss Ann Birdwell, both of Hot Springs, and the junior bridesmaid, Miss Linda Fay Guillemins.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Talbot Feild, Jr. Mrs. Carl Bruner greeted the guests at the door, and Mrs. W.C. Bruner, Jr. assisted in dispensing hospitality. After they were introduced to the receiving line, the guests were invited into the dining room.

Yellow glads and daisies in silver centered the dining table where Miss Julie Faucett of Ashdown served the tiered wedding cake, and Mrs. Jack Birdwell of Hot Springs poured the punch. At the groom's table Mrs. Thomas Guillemins served chocolate cake, and Miss Becky Holt of Arkadelphia poured coffee. Fruit and boxwood fern in a hurricane lamp decorated the center of the table.

Assisting in the dining room were Miss Carol Ann Dickerson of Little Rock, Miss Susan White, Miss Duwana Cox, Misses Martha and Cathy Miller of Columbus, O., cousins of the groom, Mrs. Cleve Dunavant of Jonesboro, and Mrs. David Griffin. Miss LaNelle Booker of Washington presided at the bride's book. Misses Linda Guillemins and Holly McDermott of Little Rock, cousin of the groom, dispensed the rice bags.

For a wedding trip to New Orleans the bride wore a beige and brown ensemble with beige accessories and the yellow orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Drugs Help High Blood Pressure

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Veterans Administration heart specialist says new evidence justifies extending potentially life-saving drug treatment for high blood pressure to millions who suffer only mild or moderate cases.

Dr. Edward Freis reported Monday the world's first comprehensive evidence that drug treatment for high blood pressure—known to be life-saving in many severe cases—also is highly beneficial in mild and moderate cases.

Specifically, evidence shows such drugs can cut death rates sharply and reduce or essentially eliminate certain serious complications, said Freis who is with the Washington, D.C., VA Hospital.

The new evidence was obtained, he said, during a five-year cooperative study conducted among 380 male patients at 16 of VA's 166 hospitals throughout the country.

High blood pressure—technically known as hypertension—affects at least 20 million Americans, and is the second most common cause of death in the United States. Most suffer mild or moderate cases.

But he said that use of readily available drugs to treat them has been a subject of medical controversy, despite striking benefits demonstrated for more severe cases.

At least half of the mild and moderate cases fall in the potentially dangerous category—which could lead to death or serious complications such as congestive heart failure or cerebral strokes, Freis said. The doctor said only about 15 per cent are on effective drug treatment.

But he said that use of readily available drugs to treat them has been a subject of medical controversy, despite striking benefits demonstrated for more severe cases.

LOVE HER?—NO, HER BROTHER

Dear Helen:
I'm popular with other girls for two reasons: We have a swimming pool, and I have a good looking big brother.

The girls come over supposedly to see me, but they end up showing off around the pool because my brother and his friends are there.

I just sit and look stupid. You see, I'm two years younger than my brother and he's always put me down as a punk. He makes me feel so dumb that I can't even talk to the other boys. I'm not ugly or anything.

When everybody treats you like a 12-year-old when you're really almost 15, what do you do? —LITTLE SISTER

Dear Sis:
First, you can stop blaming your brother and your girl friends. So long as you think you're the put-down "Kid sister," you'll never break loose from self-consciousness—and you'll keep right on trying to hide it with self-pity.

Second, get off the sidelines and join in the fun. So you're shy. Who isn't—a little? Watch the others and you'll see most are unsure of themselves part of the time. Ask their help. If they aren't willing to give it—well, that's one way to separate real friends from brother-chasers. Don't invite 'em back!

Third, and most important, believe your mirror! It reflects a pretty girl with a lot of possibilities. Stop selling yourself short and you'll be surprised how fast you outgrow that age-12 image—even with your brother. —H.

Dear Helen:
I came home from my vacation a day early, called up my steady girlfriend, and she said she had to go out on a special assignment that night. She's a teen model.

So I called up my best friend for a game of pool, but he said he had a date.

You guessed it. Her "special assignment" was his date. I heard from a mutual friend.

To get even I asked this mutual friend out (she is a girl) and we had a great time.

The next day I told my "steady" I didn't go for two-timers and we were through. But now my best friend thinks I'm mad, and I don't want to lose a buddy I've had for seven years. But I don't want him to think he can take away my girls and I'll just shrug it off. It might become a habit.

How do I handle this? —SCOTT

Dear Scott:
Surely you can level with a guy you've known for seven years. Tell your best friend he did you a favor—this time—but don't let it happen again! —H.

Dear Helen:
Is it right for a mother to go out with me and my date? I'm 15, he's 16. That's old enough to be alone. Not that we have anything in mind, but my boyfriend is getting very upset about my mother always planning the dates.

She says we can't go out if she doesn't go with us. That's okay on a family picnic, but bowling, skating, the movies? You'd think we were 12 or 13!

Dad is more modern, but he won't say anything except, "It's up to your mother." —ABOUT TO LOSE A BOYFRIEND

Dear ATLAB:
Nothing burns me more than "cop-out" parents who know their mates are in the wrong but hide behind, "It's up to your mother-father."

For Pete's sake, Father of ATLAB: Tell your wife duennas don't even make it in Spain these days! —H.

Local Affairs Department Is Proposed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Young Republicans of Arkansas proposed Sunday that the governor appoint a study committee to investigate establishing a Department of Local Affairs.

In a proposition paper, the YR said the department was needed because of the trend toward urbanization in Arkansas.

Dislikes Not Seeing Her Husband More

By DALA MCKINSEY
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Betty Bumpers, wife of Democratic gubernatorial candidate Dale Bumpers of Charleston, says the hardest thing for her to adjust to during the campaign is not being able to see her husband more.

Sometimes she goes as long as a week without seeing him, and then only if they arrange to meet somewhere on the campaign trail, she said.

Mrs. Bumpers says they are a close family and have missed being together.

The Bumpers have three children, Brent, 17, Bill, 14, and Brooke, 8. Therefore, Mrs. Bumpers says, she has spent most of her time at home with the children rather than campaigning.

However, while the two boys were hauling hay at the Bumpers' farm, she left to make a tour of the southern section of Arkansas, where she and a sister passed out campaign literature and shook hands.

This is the first time Mrs. Bumpers has campaigned and she says people are "nicer" and "more pleasant" than she had anticipated, but she said she would rather be at home.

She said both her husband and herself had been reared to do something more with their lives than center it around themselves and that is one reason Bumpers is running for office.

A lawyer, Bumpers almost ran for the nomination two years ago, Mrs. Bumpers said.

She said in June, no one seemed to know who Bumpers was, but now "it is amazing" how many people are familiar with his candidacy.

She credits his "running night and day" to the new-found voter familiarity.

A graceful, slender woman, with brown eyes and dark brown hair with a silver streak running through it, Mrs. Bumpers is 44.

In the area of campaign issues, she listed her own personal preference as improved medical treatment and more doctors for Arkansas.

She expressed concern for areas that have no doctors, or for people who might not be aware that they did not have to accept the opinion of just one doctor, but could perhaps find relief with a specialist.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Bumpers are members of the Methodist Church, and Bumpers has been a choir director for 20 years in addition to holding several offices within the church.

Mrs. Bumpers said that "in this day and age" children need "security," and the church gives them a type of security they need.

Until recently, the Bumpers had a herd of registered black Angus. They sold the herd when Bumpers entered the race.

Mrs. Bumpers says that they will probably buy more cattle later.

She said with Bumpers' law practice in Charleston and the campaign, taking care of the herd was "too much."

She said she likes yard work and insists on mowing her own yard except during the very hot weather.

She complained that if anyone else mowed the yard, they ran into her hushes and flowers with the lawnmower, so she likes to do it herself.

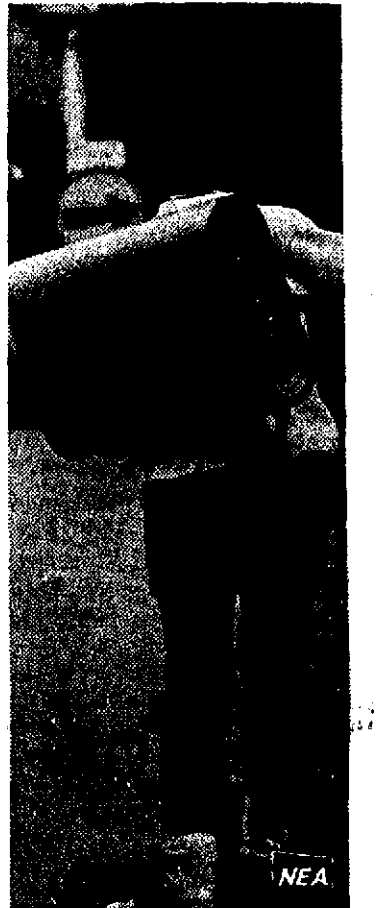

Mrs. Bumpers also takes flower arrangements to the church every week. Most of the flowers come from her yard.

A former teacher, Mrs. Bumpers attended Iowa State University, The Chicago Academy of Fine Arts and the University of Arkansas. She majored in education and art, and lists among her favorite artists, Picasso.

Presidential Salute

Twenty-one guns fired in succession is the generally accepted salute to a reigning monarch. The custom originated in France and Britain, and the United States applied it to the president as a tradition until Aug. 16, 1875, when it became official.

BACK TO SCHOOL in safety goes this West German boy wearing a special schoolbag. Made of bright yellow plastic, bag has reflecting buckles on front and three reflectors on each side. It's designed to make children more visible to motorists in the dark.

Philadelphia Squashed 9-3 by Cincinnati

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
A good-hitting bench doesn't hurt when you're going for a pennant.

It's even better when your Bench catches.
Johnny Bench, Cincinnati's phenom-in-residence, does both the hitting and catching for the Reds—good reason why they're atop the National League's West Division race by 13 games.

Bench laced a three-run homer among this three hits, lifting his league lead to 41 round-trippers and 121 RBIs, as the Reds squashed Philadelphia 9-3 Monday night.

The homer also tied him with Roy Campanella for most hits by a catcher in a season, although seven of Bench's shots were hit while playing other positions.

Los Angeles, runners-up in the West, lost ground in its chase when beaten by St. Louis 11-8. Elsewhere, Chicago spanked San Diego 7-0 and San Francisco edged Pittsburgh 5-4.

In the American League, Baltimore defeated Milwaukee 3-2; Boston turned back Chicago 7-2; Washington topped Kansas City 7-0; California beat Cleveland 4-0 and Detroit whipped Oakland 5-3.

Tony Perez, the other swinger in the Reds' one-two punch, hit No. 37, also a three-run job, to help Jim Merritt become the NL's first 18-game winner.

Merritt, a swinger himself, hit his third homer of the year to aid his cause.

Bob Gibson won his 17th game with ninth-inning relief help from Chuck Taylor in St. Louis' victory over Los Angeles. Gibson was pulled after serving his 14th hit—a one-out single to Ted Sizemore. Taylor then got Billy Grabarkewitz to line into a game-ending double play.

The Dodgers' hit total gave them 130 in their last nine game but three were losses.

Milt Pappas stymied San Diego on six hits and Don Kessinger's single keyed a three-run fourth for Chicago. Billy Williams played in his 1,044th straight game and moved into third place on the all-time durability list. The Chicago outfielder, replacing Joe Sewell of Cleveland, now ranks behind Lou Gehrig's 2,130 and Everett Scott's 1,307.

San Francisco gave East Division-leading Pittsburgh the willies—Willie Mays and Willie McCovey. Mays singled and McCovey slammed his 31st homer off Bruce Dal Canton in the eighth to give the Giants a comeback victory.

McCovey, who beats the famous right-field shift against him with the long ball, said he's not about to change his style.

"I'm not a Matty Alou-type hitter," said the broad-beamed first baseman, "and I'm not going to be ... it (my style) worked last year when I hit .320 against the shift."

New Rule on Carburetor Announced

ATLANTA (AP) — A new rule limiting the carburetor venturi plate size means that a speed from 190 to 193 miles per hour will win the pole position in the $130,000 Talladega 500 race Sunday, says Bill France, president of International Speedway Corp. France said in a news conference Monday that fewer caution flags because of engine failures will interrupt the race.

"The race at Talladega should be 15 miles per hour faster than any other 500-mile race ever run," France said.

Tigers Topple A's 5-3

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Denny McLain knows how to face the music, but he's no match for Lloyd Fox' melody and Russ Goetz' lyrics in the same earful.

McLain lost a battle of nerves with Oakland organist Fox and a war of words with Umpire Goetz Monday night before the Detroit Tigers rallied to topple the A's 5-3 on Norm Cash's three-run homer in the eighth inning.

The controversial Detroit pitching ace, who sat out the first half of the season under suspension for 1967 gambling activities, was serenaded by Fox between pitches during a fifth-inning Oakland rally, then was charged with a bases-loaded balk and ultimately was banished by Goetz for disputing the call.

In other American League games, Washington ripped Kansas City 7-0 on Jim Hannan's one-hitter; Baltimore edged Milwaukee 3-2 on Boog Powell's eighth-inning homer; California blanked Cleveland 3-0 behind Tom Murphy and Boston trimmed the Chicago White Sox 7-2.

In National League play, the Chicago Cubs downed San Diego 7-0; San Francisco nipped Pittsburgh 5-4; Cincinnati slugged Philadelphia 9-3 and St. Louis beat Los Angeles 11-8.

McLain, making his 12th appearance for the Tigers since being reinstated by Commissioner Bowie Kuhn on July 1, pitched hitless ball until the fifth, when Felipe Alou cracked a leadoff single.

Fox, whose clarion chords during a 1969 Tigers-A's game rattled McLain into a run-costing balk, picked up the tempo after Alou's hit. McLain complained to Goetz and the plate umpire ordered the organist to stop playing while the pitcher was in his motion.

But Fox continued to pound the keyboard — between pitches — as McLain walked Frank Fernandez and was clipped for a run-scoring single by A's hurler John "Blue Moon" Odom. Then, after an error filled the bases, Goetz caught McLain breaking his motion and called a balk, allowing Fernandez to trot home.

McLain charged the umpire and was ejected after a heated exchange.

"He started his motion and then stopped," Goetz said. "He claimed he had stepped off the rubber, but I didn't have a chance to ask anybody. If they (the Tigers) had asked me, I would have checked with the first base or third base umpire."

"But he came in with some choice words about my ancestry. I ignored it at first, but he repeated it and I said 'You've got to go.' It's the first time I've had to throw a pitcher out of a game."

McLain's account of the incident differed from the umpire's on all points except one. "I know I was off the rubber," he said. "I waited for him to check with somebody. We asked him to check. Then I ran in and questioned his ancestry."

Denny also insisted that Fox' organ antics hadn't been a factor in the flare-up. "I couldn't care less about the organ," he said. "If Finley (A's boss Charlie Finley) wants a three-ring circus, which is what he's got here, he can have it."

The Senators ran their winning streak to seven games, longest in the two-year tenure of Manager Ted Williams, as Hannan, 9-5, limited the Royals to a fifth-inning triple by Paul Schaaf on which left fielder Frank Howard just missed a shoe-string catch.

Howard and Mike Epstein rapped successive first inning homers for the Senators.

Powell's leadoff homer in the eighth broke a 2-2 tie at Milwaukee and gave Jim Palmer his 17th victory of the season. Chico Salmon also homered for the Orioles and Palmer finished with a three-hitter.

Alex Johnson crashed a 460-foot homer off Sam McDowell to open the Angels' seventh and provide Murphy, who tossed a five-hitter, with the only run he needed.

Home runs by Reggie Smith and Tony Conigliaro backed the strong pitching of Cal Koonce and carried the Red Sox past the skidding White Sox in an afternoon game.

Bengals Lose Star QB Greg Cook

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
There was good news for the New York Jets and bad news for the Cincinnati Bengals in pro football today.

Joe Namath, the colorful and controversial star quarterback, was scheduled to report to the Jets' training camp after missing the first two exhibition games of the season. The Bengals lost their star QB, Greg Cook, for the entire season.

Namath, the Super Bowl hero of two years ago, passed a one-hour and 45-minute physical examination Monday and a happy Weeb Ewbank, Coach of the Jets, said: "We're happy to have Joe coming back."

Cook, a standout passer for Cincinnati as a rookie last season, hurt his right shoulder in a pick-up basketball game this spring. He underwent a two-hour operation Monday and physicians reported there was "no way" he could play this season.

Another quarterback, Ken Stabler of Oakland, was in the news. He connected for three touchdown passes of 49, 22 and 60 yards, to lead the Raiders to a 30-19 exhibition victory over the Philadelphia Eagles Monday night.

A former Alabama star like Namath, Stabler's three TD aerials made up for a fumble that almost made him the goat before 50,853 at Franklin Field.

He bobbled the snap from center on an Oakland field goal try. Ray Jones of the Eagles picked up the ball and ran 77 yards for a touchdown that tied the score at 16-16 late in the third period.

The Eagles went ahead at 19-16 before Stabler came through with the last two of his touchdown passes. Rod Sherman caught the 60-yarder that ensured victory for the Raiders.

Al Atkinson, who announced his retirement from the Jets several weeks ago, changed his mind and reported to the Jets' camp Monday. The star middle linebacker is expected to see limited action, like Namath, when the Jets played their rival New York Giants in the Yale Bowl at New Haven, Conn., Sunday.

Safety Eddie Meador, an 11-year veteran with the Los Angeles Rams, changed his mind about retirement and said he would report to the Rams later this week.

In a contrary development Walt Sweeney, an eight-year veteran offensive guard with the San Diego Chargers, said he was quitting football over the wording of his contract other than salary terms.

Elsewhere, John Small, the No. 1 draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons from The Citadel, was shifted from linebacker to defensive tackle.

Ashe Wants Davis Cup Open to Pros

CLEVELAND (AP) — Arthur Ashe, No. 2 ranked tennis player in the U.S., says that unless the Davis Cup matches open up to contract professionals, this will be his last time to play.

"I don't want to be part of the hypocrisy," said Ashe, a non-contract pro, as the U.S. team began workouts Monday in preparation for the Davis Cup Challenge Round here Aug. 29-31 against West Germany.

He said the smaller tennis nations are against allowing contract pros to compete and so far this block has prevented the change.

"Davis Cup is one of the three biggest names in tennis," Ashe continued. "The others are Pancho Gonzales and Forest Hills. The best players in the world should be playing the Cup matches."

Tex. League All Star Game Tonight

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — A pair of hardthrowing right-handers will oppose each other in Tuesday night's Texas League All-Star Game in Albuquerque.

Albuquerque's Jim Flynn, who has a 16-3 record this year, received the starting nod for the West, while Charlie Williams of Memphis will start for the East. Williams has a 10-4 record.

Both lineups, announced Tuesday, are loaded with speed and power.

The West will start four Albuquerque Dodgers and three El Paso Sun Kings, while the East's lineup will include four players from Memphis and three from Arkansas.

West manager Del Crandall of Albuquerque named a batting order of Larry Eckenrode, Albuquerque, 2b; Gary Moore, Albuquerque, 1b; Mickey Rivers, El Paso, cf; Billy Parker, El Paso, ss; Steve Green, Amarillo, 3b; Joe Ferguson, Albuquerque, cf; Bob Gallagher, Albuquerque, 1f; Mike Floyd, El Paso, rf; and Flynn, p.

Crandall predicted the game would be an offensive battle. "There are too many good hitters in this game not to have a few runs scored," the Albuquerque skipper said.

"We think we've got the Texas League's best pitcher in Flynn, but he's going to be facing the best hitters in the league, too," Crandall said.

Flynn says he has become a "complete" pitcher this year. "I'm getting my curve and changeup over for strikes this year," the Dodgers' curly-haired righthander said. "I still have a lot of confidence in my fastball, but my curve has become just as much of an 'out' pitch as the fastball."

He will be racing an East lineup which averages .292. Bashore and Stein head the individual Eastern stars with .317 averages.

But Garrett is considered the East's most dangerous hitter by Flynn. The veteran San Antonio outfielder leads the league in home runs this year with 20.

The West isn't hurting for power either. Parker has 18 home runs to his credit this season while the quartet of Ferguson, Moore, Rivers and Floyd all have 12 home runs apiece.

And the West has the league's leading hitter in Gallagher, who was batting .351 at the All-Star break.

Albuquerque officials said 2,000 advance tickets were sold by Monday night.

Dodger General Manager Charlie Blaney predicts a crowd of "around 8,000 will attend the game if the weather is good."

Throughout the day, Battista, who earned $3,000 and entry into next year's $100,000 Firestone Tournament of Champions, took 13 of his 16 match games while knocking down 3,611 pins. The huge margin of difference in the total scores—9,642 to 9,414—was due to the 50 bonus pins awarded for each victory registered in the match game phase of PBA competition.

Devlin, Lotz in Avco Classic

SUTTON, Mass. (AP) — Bruce Devlin and Dick Lotz, each already a two-time winner on the 1970 PGA tour, are the latest pros named to compete in the $160,000 Avco Golf Classic at Pleasant Valley Country Club starting Thursday.

W.Germany Close to Davis Cup

WESSELDORF, GERMANY (AP) — For the first time in its history West Germany has a chance to win tennis' coveted Davis Cup.

The Germans mean to make the most of their opportunity.

Led by Christian Kuhnke and Wilhelm Bunroff, the Germans aim to wrestle the defending United States in the challenge round at Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 29-31.

Ingo Buding, the No. 3 player on the German team, said Monday that "the United States won't have any walkover against us the way Kuhnke and Bungert are playing."

He made the comment after Kuhnke had beaten Manuel Orantes 6-3, 6-3, 7-5 and Bungert had crushed Juan Gisbert 6-4, 6-1, 6-3 for a 4-1 German triumph over Spain in the interzone final and the right to play the U.S. for the Cup.

Enroute to the challenge round the Germans defeated Denmark, Belgium, Russia, India and Spain with Kuhnke and Bungert carrying the load.

"It is clear it will be difficult for us but both Kuhnke and I are presently in good form," said the 31-year-old Bungert. Kuhnke, also 31 and West Germany's No. 1 ranking player, had no comment. He is known as The Silent One both on and off the court.

Ferdinand Henkel, Germany's non-playing captain, was more cautious. "It will be very difficult but we hope to give a good account of ourselves," he said. "The Americans will be strong, especially on their home grounds."

The United States swept Romania 5-0 to win the Davis Cup in the challenge round last year at Cleveland.

D. Battista Wins Bowling Tournament

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — Dick Battista, of Astoria, N.Y., lost his final game of the tournament, but nevertheless won the championship Monday night in the $37,000 Grand Rapids Open Bowling Tournament.

The big burly lefthander dropped the 217-200 decision to runner-up Nelson Burton Jr., of St. Louis, Mo., in the tournament's 40th and last game, but going into the playoff tilt, had built up a lead of almost 300 pins over Burton, a four time tistist this year.

Scores Above Par in Golf Tourney

DARIEN, Conn. (AP) — Scores in the U.S. Women's Amateur Golf Championship were expected to drop along with the humidity and temperature today at the Wee Burn Country Club.

No one could break par 74 in Monday's first round of qualifying, played under hot, muggy conditions and stopped twice by lightning and thundershowers which pelted the 6,240-yard course.

However, a pair of Curtis Cup team members—one from the United States and the other from England—entered today's second round with one-over-par 75s.

Martha Wilkinson, 21, of Whittier, Calif., and Mary Everard, 27, of Yorkshire, England, shot identical 38-37—75s late Monday to wrestle the lead from four others knotted at 76.

Trailing Miss Wilkinson and Miss Everard with 76s were Connie Day, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Nancy Hager, a 17-year-old Curtis Cupper from Dallas; veteran Polly Riley, a former Curtis Cupper from Fort Worth, Tex., playing in her 25th straight Women's Amateur; and Delancey Smith of Snyder, N.Y.

Mary Jane Fassinger, North Wilmington, Pa., an 18-year-old Curtis Cupper; Sally Little of Capetown, South Africa; British Curtis Cupper Mary A. McKenna of Dublin; and Carol Semple of Sewickley, Pa., were tied at 77.

Sunny skies, lower humidity and lower temperatures were forecast for today's 18 holes, which will cut the 134-woman field to 32 for match play beginning Wednesday.

America Cup Finals Open in Newport

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The final trials to determine the U.S. defender in the America's Cup were set to open today with the two top contenders, Intrepid and Valiant, pitted against each other in the first race.

Weatherly and Heritage were the second race opponents. Both races were to start from the America's Cup buoy nine miles off the Rhode Island coast and follow a 24.3-mile course.

The America's Cup Committee, headed by former Commodore Henry S. Morgan of Northport, N.Y., has until Sept. 13 to pick a U.S. representative to meet either the Australian or French challenger in the famed match for 12-meter yachts. The Cup match begins Sept. 15.

The Australian boat, Gretel II, had a mishap Monday, losing her headstay during a brush with American Eagle, which has been serving as a trial horse for the Australian yacht. But the headstay gave way before the mast could be seriously damaged.

Gretel II will sail against France, the French contender, in a best-of-seven series beginning Friday to determine the Cup challenger.

1970 Probably Won't Be Packers' Year

By BOB GREENE
Associated Press Sports Writer
GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The "Pack will be back," but 1970 probably won't be the year. Coach Phil Bengtson has almost completely rebuilt the famed Green Bay Packers who swept three consecutive National Football League titles and two Super Bowl championships in 1965-66-67. Retirement brought about the change and trades accomplished the rest.

The green-and-gold-clad warriors still around who were vital parts of those "Golden Years" include quarterback Bart Starr, now in his 15th NFL season; wide receiver Carroll Dale, center Ken Bowman, guard Gale Gillingham; defensive end Lionel Aldridge, linebacker Nitsche, defensive backs Willie Wood and Bob Jeter.

Gillingham is the youngster of the group at 26, while Aldridge and Robinson are 29 each. Bowman is 27; Dale 32; Nitschke, Wood and Jeter, each 33 and Starr 36.

While Green Bay might have improved itself with trades and the college draft, it is not believed the Packers can catch either Minnesota or Detroit who they finished behind in the Central Division last season.

Starr is a proven leader, but injuries have cut deeply into his playing time the last two seasons. Don Horn, a fourth-year man out of San Diego State, could provide the Packers with a more exciting attack if he takes over for Starr. Horn also is more erratic.

One spot Phil Bengtson is not worried about is running back, where he can call on five veterans with impressive credentials. The most explosive are speedsters Travis Williams and Dave Hampton, while Perry Williams, Danny Anderson and Jim Grabowski are only a step behind.

The running back spots are so well fortified that Bengtson traded veteran Elijah Pitts along with offensive lineman Bob Hyland and linebacker Lee Roy Caffey to the Bears for Chicago's No. 1 draft choice—With the choice in possession they picked massive Mike McCoy of Notre Dame and immediately put the 6-foot-5, 284-pounder into the right tackle spot left vacant by the retirement of Henry Jordan.

Aldridge is still one of the best in the business at right end, while sophomore Rich Moore, 6-6, 285, is at left tackle and Bob Brown, 6-5, 270, is at left end, giving the Packers one of the biggest front lines in pro football.

Nitschke is flanked at linebacker by Robinson, recuperating from a cracked rib suffered in practice, and Fred Carr, the Packers' top draft choice in 1968 who has taken over for the departed Caffey.

The unexpected retirement of Herb Adderley has left a big hole at left cornerback. Bengtson will fill the post with Leon Harden of Texas-El Paso, who was on the taxi squad last season, or rookies Ken Ellis of Southern, a speedster, and Alvin Matthews, the second round draft choice from Texas A. & I.

The rest of the defensive backfield remains intact: Wood at the other corner and Jeter and Doug Hart at the safeties.

Ken Bowman hasn't been ousted from the center job since halfway through the first super bowl game in 1967. He's flanked by guards Bill Lueck and Gillingham and tackles Francis Peay and Dick Humes.

John Spilis, a second-year man from northern Illinois taking over for the retired Boyd Bowler, is a perfect partner for Dale at the wide receiver spots.

Veteran John Hilton, obtained from Pittsburgh, and sophomore Ron Jones will battle for the tight end spot with Rich McGeorge, the Packers' other No. 1 draft choice, who just got out of the Army last weekend.

The field goal kicking, which will be handled by either Booth Lusteg or Joe Runk, can't help but be better. Last season, the Packers only connected on 6 of 21 and had seven blocked.

Razorback Suffers Minor Injury

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Defensive End Bruce James of the Arkansas Razorbacks suffered minor injuries Monday in an automobile accident near here.

James, a senior from Moss Point, Miss., was treated at a local hospital for cuts and bruises and dismissed. Officials at the University of Arkansas said James would probably report for practice Monday.

James was enroute to Fayetteville at the time of the accident.

C&C Elec. Co. Wins Boys BB Championship

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — C and C Electric Co. of Little Rock defeated CAMPA of Little Rock 5-2 and 3-1 Monday night to win the state championship of the Boys Baseball Association of Arkansas in the 13 to 15 year age group.

CAMPA was unable to overcome had first innings. The winners scored four runs in the first inning of the first game and all three of their runs in the second game came in the first inning.

Cerrudo's Career in Question

SUTTON, Mass. (AP) — Notes from the pro golf tournament trail:

Ron Cerrudo, one of the most promising young players on the tour, is through for the year and there is some question about his career.

Cerrudo, a personable 25-year-old and a two-year tourist, won the San Antonio-Texas Open earlier this year but has been out of action for more than two months with chronic back trouble.

He recently underwent surgery in California for a fused disc.

How hard does Jack Nicklaus hit the ball?

"You can hear his bones creak," said Bruce Crampton, Nicklaus' playing partner in a recent round.

"Really, when he makes a swing, you sometimes can hear his bones creak and pop."

The Odessa Pro-Am, a fall event and highly popular with a large number of touring Texas professionals, has been cancelled this year.

Johnny Miller, a 23-year-old tour sophomore from San Francisco, is the tour iron man.

He has played more rounds than any other tourist and has missed only two events this year. He wasn't eligible for the Colonial in Fort Worth and missed the Western in Chicago.

Miller also missed the Masters and the Tournament of Champions—he wasn't eligible but played in satellite events on those weeks. So far he's been in 30 tournaments this year.

He hasn't won, but his earnings are well over $30,000 and the non-stop schedule has helped put him in the top 10 on the point list, the list determining exempt players for next year.

Janitor Jim Sets World Pacing Record

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Janitor Jim, a 3-year-old gelding owned by Dean Butts of Decatur, Ill., set a world pacing record Monday at the Illinois State Fair as he won the Illinois State Fair colt stakes for 3-year-old pacers.

The chestnut son of Brooks Hanover won both heats in his division of the $56,625 stake in 2:00 and 1:59 3/5 and then captured the three-horse race off in 2 minutes flat for a record three-heat total of 5:59 3/5.

The old record, set on this same mile track by Shoestring in 1968, was six minutes even.

One ounce of gold can be drawn into a wire 50 miles long.

7 in Race for Lieutenant Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Six Democrats and two Republicans seek the office of lieutenant governor in this year's elections. Their campaigns have generated little interest.

On the Republican side the competitors are Sterling R. Cockrill Jr. of Little Rock and Gerald D. Williams of North Little Rock.

The Democrats are Kenneth C. Coffelt of Jacksonville, James H. Harrell of Russellville, Paul Mah of Dumas, Bill L. Nelson of Rogers, Dr. Bob C. Riley of Arkadelphia and Odis O. Wilson of North Little Rock.

Cockrill, 45, probably has the best-known name on either side, partly the result of publicity that attended his switch this year from the Democratic party to the GOP.

As a state representative, Cockrill generally voted the "party line" for several years and looked after the interests of the insurance business, of which he was a part.

But in more recent sessions, he drifted away from the main party theme on some controversial pieces of legislation.

Although a number of prominent Democratic legislators had little affection for Cockrill, he was appointed majority leader by Hayes C. McClerkin of Texarkana, the House Speaker who is running this year for the Democratic nomination for governor.

Cockrill said the switch was made partly because as a Democrat he could not obtain campaign financing without committing himself to proposals and ideas that he found objectionable.

Democrats suggested he had been enticed by the wealth of Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, a Republican, and the hope of bettering his own political future in a party where he had fewer enemies.

Cockrill said no money was involved in the switch, although, he added, he anticipated being able to obtain adequate campaign financing.

Because of the switch, Cockrill has been rated as close as anything could be to a "running mate" of Rockefeller in this election.

Williams, the other GOP contender, occupies the "running mate" position with James "Uncle Mac" MacKrell, the former radio evangelist who seeks the GOP nomination for governor. His campaign has been somewhat subdued.

Wilson, on the Democratic side, is a 42-year-old carpenter who described his entry into the race as an effort to fulfill "a poor boy's dream." He, too, has conducted a quiet campaign.

Nelson, 46, says he opposes additional taxation and favors a crackdown on "dope peddlers" in the schools.

Coffelt, a lawyer, is seeking the same office he failed to win two years ago. The 63-year-old campaigner has asked for support on grounds that he would help the Democratic ticket in November to defeat "the Rockefeller-Cockrill combine."

Mah, 37, who is of Oriental descent, said election of him would enhance the image of Arkansas in race relations. He is a student at the University of Arkansas Law School and formerly a planning consultant and adviser with the state Highway Department.

Riley, 45, is distinctive for the black patch that covers the eye he lost in combat during World War II. He is a professor of political science at Ouachita Baptist University, formerly was mayor of Arkadelphia and a state representative from Little Rock. He is parliamentary officer of the state House of Representatives.

Harrell, a 33-year-old legislator, has proposed that the lieutenant governor be made an ex-officio member of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission and the state Parks, Recreation and Travel Commission.

Nelson, Riley and Harrell have proposed that additional duties be taken on by the office of lieutenant governor in the people's behalf.

The chief responsibility of the lieutenant governor is presiding over the Senate. The office has a salary of $2,500 a year.

Guidelines for Duck Season

MENA, Ark. (AP)—The state Game and Fish Commission liberalized duck hunting regulations Monday by establishing a 45-day season to open Nov. 27 and raising the bag limit from two to four mallards.

In setting the date, the commission took into consideration the availability of ducks, water and suitable hunting conditions.

Hunters will be allowed to have possession of four mallards, two wood ducks and one canvasback or one redhead.

A second federal option that was available to the commission was a 55-day season that would have limited the number of mallards to two.

Most species of ducks are expected to move down the nation's four flyways in about the same numbers as last year, which was a good year generally for hunters.

The Department of Interior has said that the prospects of mallards is better than last year.

Basic shooting hours set up by the commission remain the same as last year. Hunting begins at one-half hour before sunrise and ends at sunset.

Pakistani Wins Amateur Tennis Meet

SOUTHAMPTON, N.Y. (AP) — Haroon Rahim, the newly crowned U.S. Amateur Grass Court Tennis champion, should be one of leading players in the world within two years.

That was the comment of Frank K. Shields, a top American player himself several decades ago, after watching Rahim beat John Gardner in a grueling 3½-hour final Sunday at the Meadow Club, 6-3, 6-4, 1-6, 11-13, 6-4.

"He's got one of the best, more deceptive serves I've ever seen," said Shields of Rahim, a 20-year-old UCLA student from Pakistan who was the No. 1 foreign seed.

Unseeded Gardner, a 21-year-old Australian who is a student at Southern Methodist, rallied strongly after losing the first two sets. He twice staged off match-point in the eighth game of the long fourth set, only to double-fault in the 10th game of the last set when Rahim again held match point.

Bully On a Bus

Bus driver Hawkins noticed that one of his passengers, obviously drunk, was getting belligerent toward a young woman. Hoping things would calm down, Hawkins did not interfere.

But things did not calm down. On the contrary, the man climaxed his outburst by giving the woman a vicious kick in the shins.

In due course, she filed a damage suit against the bus company. And a court ruled that the company was indeed liable. The judge said Hawkins had failed to live up to his legal responsibility.

ties as the "man in charge" of the bus.

As a rule, a bus driver has the duty to do some basic policing of his vehicle. When one passenger menaces another, the driver cannot just take refuge in the role of a neutral bystander.

In fact, he may have to take affirmative action not only against grown-up bullies but also against youthful rascals. In another case several teenagers, armed with rubber bands, began firing paper clips around the interior of their school bus.

Again, the driver followed a hands-off policy. But when a girl was struck in the eye and injured, the bus company was held liable in court. The judge said the driver had an affirmative duty to halt this dangerous game.

Nevertheless, since he is not really a policeman, he does not have to go out of his way to search for trouble. Thus:

An intoxicated passenger jabbed a large pin into another man's hip. The indignant victim later demanded damages from the bus company, pointing out that his attacker had been quarrelsome and profane even before thrusting the pin.

But it also appeared that the fellow had been sitting far back in the bus, and that the driver had simply not been aware of his misbehavior. Accordingly, the court found no grounds for placing blame upon the driver.

"His primary duty," said the judge, "is to give his full attention to the operation of the bus. If he concentrates upon this all-important duty, he cannot give attention to the actions of the passengers unless so unusual as to demand it."

In the old days, we used to read of the Last-Chance Saloon. Today it is the last-chance filling station. At bridge, there are many last-chance situations. It didn't always pay to take a drink at the Last-Chance Saloon but it is mighty good policy at the bridge table to avail yourself of that last chance.

West opened the king of clubs and continued the suit. If he had shifted to a diamond, there would be no story but West did continue clubs. South ruffed and led a heart toward dummy. West played the four, dummy the nine.

East's duck was a good play. He was going to have to play his ace next but, if his partner held the jack, East had hopes of something good happening.

South drew trumps with four leads and led a second heart. West played the seven and, after long thought, South went up with dummy's king. East produced the ace and South had to lose two diamonds and another heart for down two.

"How could I tell?" asked South. "West had stuck in a vulnerable two-club overcall. He just had to have the ace of hearts."

It was likely that West held the ace of hearts, but that didn't justify South's play. It was all a matter of that last chance.

South was not going to make his contract if his king of hearts held. He would make that trick but would still have to lose two diamonds and the ace of hearts. His only chance to make the contract was to play dummy's 10 and knock out the ace. Not much of a chance but the only one he had.

Job Bank for Mexican-Americans

By PEGGY SIMPSON

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal agency has created a job bank to place qualified Mexican-Americans and other Spanish-speaking persons in government positions.

Mexican-Americans in top civil service grades between 15 and 18 number little more than 1 per cent, the agency says, compared with 5.3 per cent for blacks.

The Cabinet Committee for Opportunity of the Spanish-surnamed adds only 2.8 per cent of all government employees are Mexican-Americans. Most work in lower echelons.

In its initial five months, only 5 to 7 per cent of the estimated 50 applicants on file have gotten jobs.

"What's been lacking has been a commitment on the part of the agencies," said Merced Hernandez, a Texan with 14 years' experience in directing personnel operations within the government.

Drinking Too Much Beer Can Damage the Liver

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

(First of Three Related Columns.)

Q—Can too much beer cause ulcers, liver disease or anything?

A—Prolonged use of any alcoholic beverage in large amounts can cause cirrhosis of the liver. There is growing evidence that in time it will also damage the heart, pancreas and brain, not to mention the increase in accident proneness.

Q—What are the good points and bad points of drinking beer? What is the safest alcoholic beverage?

A—Beer is a mild relaxant. In moderation it often helps persons who are underweight to gain but other foods are better for this purpose. One 12-ounce bottle of beer contains about 0.7 ounces of alcohol. Persistent heavy consumption of beer can lead to alcoholism. Rather than speak of the safest beverage, it is better to speak of the safest blood alcohol level—not over 1/100th of 1 per cent.

Q—What effect does alcohol have on a person past 50 who has high blood pressure?

A—When first consumed, alcohol causes a slight rise in blood pressure, followed shortly by a fall and a feeling of relaxation but don't rely on it to cure your high blood pressure.

Q—Would drinking eight ounces of whisky a day harm a person?

A—This amount of whisky contains about 3½ ounces of alcohol—not a harmless amount.

Q—One is said to be intoxicated when the blood alcohol level reaches 10 per cent. Does this mean that everyone whose blood level is 10 per cent or higher would be drunk?

A—Your liberality exceeds all human bounds. At a blood level of 1/10th of 1 per cent (not 10 per cent), you are staggering drunk and your speech is slurred. At one-half of 1 per cent, you are in a coma.

Q—Is alcohol a nervous system stimulant or depressant?

A—Although often referred to as a stimulant, it is a depressant. The confusion arises from the fact that, as the more the brain centers are depressed and one relaxes, he may feel exhilarated.

Q—About how much alcohol must be consumed by a man who weighs 150 pounds to give a blood level of 0.15 per cent?

A—About eight ounces of 90-proof whisky, if consumed within an hour or less.

Big Grant to Southern State

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. David Pryor, D - Ark., announced Monday that a $301,906 grant had been awarded to Southern State College at Magnolia to assist in the construction of a building for the school of nursing.

The new facility will permit the college to admit 50 first-year students to its new associate degree program.

3rd Assault on Safeguard Missile

By LAWRENCE L. KNUTSON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edward Brooke, launching a third Senate assault to curb the Safeguard antimissile system, says the outcome will be so close absenteees could determine victory or defeat.

The Massachusetts Republican won an agreement from his colleagues Monday for a final vote on the issue Wednesday.

The agreement barred Safeguard backers from trying to table the proposal to halt the geographic expansion of Safeguard to two new sites. The $322 million authorized for the new sites would be spent for improvements to two existing sites.

The vote is scheduled one week to the hour after a more restrictive amendment sponsored by Sens. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., and Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., was voted down, 52 to 47.

The Nixon administration opposes the Brooke amendment on grounds it will cost more money than expansion of the system.

The administration also has announced it has placed the entire Safeguard system on the bargaining table at the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks with the Soviet Union, offering to scrap the whole plan in return for Soviet reductions of offensive and defensive missiles.

Brooke said in an interview he expects the SALT talk proposal will actually work to his advantage, dovetailing with his argument that hundreds of millions of dollars to expand Safeguard will be wasted if the entire system is to be bargained out of existence.

The senator is basing his hopes on retaining all 47 senators who voted for the Cooper-Hart amendment.

Sens. Thomas J. McIntyre, D-N.H. and Marlow Cook, R-Ky., have already said they will support him.

Brooke must pick up at least two more votes to win, but so far, he said, he has no commitments.

Diphtheria Epidemic in San Antonio, 810 New Cases Are Suspected

By RICHARD BEENE
Associated Press Writer
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Health officials diagnosed 10 new suspected cases of diphtheria in this epidemic city Monday and sent out an urgent appeal for all residents to be immunized.

More than 5,000 children and adults, some of them fainting as they lined up in mid-90 temperatures, received diphtheria shots Monday.

If formally confirmed, the new cases will hike to 28 the number of diphtheria patients recorded here since Aug. 1. Two children have died.

Officials declared an epidemic last week in this city of 750,000. So far, more than 10,000 have been immunized.

"It is foolhardy for anyone to go beyond a five-year period for obtaining his booster immunization," said Dr. William Ross, head of the Metropolitan Health District.

The five-year limit for adults marked an increased requirement, up from the 10-year repeat booster recommended for adults in normal circumstances.

Ross renewed his call for school districts here to require diphtheria shots. He said as many as "two-thirds of the school-age children are classified as susceptible to the disease."

The largest school district here announced a drive to provide free shots and spokesmen

Israel Is Dismayed at U.S. Action

By MARCUS ELIASON
Associated Press Writer
TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli newspapers expressed dismay today at the deterioration in U.S.-Israeli relations because of Washington's refusal to support Israeli charges that Egypt has violated the cease-fire agreement.

The newspaper urged the United States to make Egypt observe the cease-fire's prohibition on changes in the military situation within 30 miles of the Suez Canal, an area where the Israeli government charges the Egyptians have been placing SAM2 and SAM3 antiaircraft missiles since the standstill Aug. 7.

The Israelis say they have sent Washington proof that the missiles are being moved, but the United States says it has not been able to substantiate the charge.

The Jerusalem Post, which often reflects official thinking, said that "the American refusal to accept the inconvenient facts of the Egyptian breach of the standstill has undermined Israeli faith in American intentions."

The paper said no one expects Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser to keep his commitments, "and that is why we want to see these pinned down very clearly. But once these become very doubtful the cease-fire is once more entirely a matter between Egypt and Israel, and all supervision will have to act fast and in the open. Secret promises and secret warnings are losing their value on the diplomatic market."

The Religious party newspaper Hatzofeh said the American stand has "seriously undermined Israel's faith" in the United States. It called for an American response "which could considerably ease Israel's grave anxiety."

Another Religious party paper, Hamodia, called on "Israel's friends in the United States to make their voices heard to halt this deterioration in U.S.-Israeli relations."

The independent daily Haaretz took a different line. It urged the government "to look forward, not backward," and drew comfort from Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird's statement that Washington would try to maintain the arms balance in the Middle East during the cease-fire.

Constitution Vote a Test

BLYTHEVILLE, Ark. (AP) Robert Meriwether, executive director of Arkansas for the Constitution of 1970, said here Monday, that the vote on the proposed new constitution will will "test whether Arkansans really want to have effective state and local government."

Meriwether told the Chamber of Commerce here that no person will agree with all in the proposed constitution. He added, however, that 98 out of the 100 delegates to the constitutional convention agreed that it was superior to the present 1874 Constitution.

Sees Senate Overriding Nixon's Veto

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Leaders of both parties predict the Senate will enact a $4.4 billion education money bill for the current fiscal year by overriding President Nixon's veto.

The House rejected the veto last Thursday. If the Senate follows suit, the bill becomes law despite Nixon's objections.

The Senate vote was scheduled at 4:30 p.m. today.

Democratic sponsors of the bill were confident in advance of the test they would win the needed two-thirds. Republican strategists, including Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., the GOP leader, said they doubt the President could be sustained.

If the vote comes out as expected, it would be the second time this year Nixon has been overridden.

In June, Congress enacted a $2.7 billion federal hospital aid bill after he sought to kill it with a veto.

The $4.4 billion education money bill for fiscal 1971, which began July 1, exceeds Nixon's budget requests by $453 million.

In vetoing it a week ago today, Nixon said the extra money might mean benefits for some groups, but the overall effect would be inflationary and would add greatly to the government's fiscal troubles.

The biggest increase over the budget is $232 million for the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, designed chiefly to improve educational opportunities for poor children.

The second biggest overrun, $126 million, is for the impacted areas program of aid for school districts overcrowded because of nearby military bases and other federal installations.

The measure also contains $66 million more than the President sought for loans for needy college students.

The vote in the House to override was 289-114.

Democrats argue that domestic needs—especially education for the disadvantaged—should be given a higher priority in the current budget.

Offsetting cuts, particularly in military and foreign programs can be made elsewhere, they assert.

Nixon also vetoed last Tuesday an $18 billion omnibus appropriations measure, chiefly because its allocations for housing programs went far beyond his budget.

The House sustained his veto of this measure, falling 63 votes short of the needed two-thirds.

Vietnamese Repel Attack by Enemy

By GEORGE ESFER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — More than 100 North Vietnamese attacked a South Vietnamese night camp before dawn today in northern South Vietnam, but the South Vietnamese drove the attackers off, said they killed 38 of them, and reported only one defender wounded.

It was the only significant ground action reported as heavy rains and low clouds blanketed the northernmost provinces. But the U.S. B52s were out as usual, with 50 of the big bombers flying raids, mostly on the Laotian side of the border.

The North Vietnamese attacked a South Vietnamese unit in night bivouac eight miles west of Fire Base O'Reilly, one of seven allied artillery bases guarding the approaches to the populous coastal lowlands. Planes were called in to illuminate the attackers with flares as the men in the camp fought back.

In addition to the 38 enemy killed, the South Vietnamese captured one prisoner, three heavy weapons, seven rifles and 300 blocks of TNT, South Vietnamese headquarters said.

One round of mortar fire also hit O'Reilly but caused no damage, the headquarters said.

In Cambodia, the Viet Cong ambushed a large rice convoy on its way to Phnom Penh Monday afternoon and a military spokesman said a great deal of rice was taken. He said he did not know what happened to the Cambodian troops escorting the convoy. The ambush occurred 45 miles north of Phnom Penh.

The spokesman also revealed that Cambodian Premier Lon Nol made his first visit to a battlefield Monday. A helicopter took him 80 miles north of Phnom Penh to Kompong Thom, which has been under

Says Nixon Trying to Muzzle Press

By LAWRENCE L. KNUTSON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George McGovern charged today the Nixon administration has created a climate of fear to muzzle the press, and warned unchecked presidential access to television could bring one-man rule.

"What we are witnessing is an incredible paradox in which the administration seeks to silence its critics in the media while exploiting the use of the media for its own message to an unprecedented degree," McGovern said.

McGovern, the subject Monday of an attack by Vice President Spiro T. Agnew for his sponsorship of the "amendment to end the war," said Agnew appears to be saying: "If you disagree with the message, choke the messenger."

The South Dakota Democrat's remarks were prepared for delivery this morning to a student-faculty audience at Washington's American University.

"The deliberate effort of the Nixon-Agnew administration to harass and intimidate the press is a serious threat to our free society," McGovern said.

He recited Agnew's various attacks on the media; President Nixon's complaint the press had glorified a man on trial for murder; and the assertion of Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell that there is no legal barrier against the Justice Department subpoenaing a reporter's notes or unused radio and television tapes and films.

McGovern quoted the President's daughter, Tricia Nixon, as saying, "He, Agnew, is amazing, what he has done to the media, helping reform itself ... I think they've taken a second look. You can't underestimate the power of fear. They're afraid if they don't shape up ..."

"They seem to believe that the simple fact that on one day in November 1968 Mr. Nixon and Mr. Agnew received the support of 43 per cent of the voters means that they should be favored by the media for the next four years," McGovern said.

"In effect, they are saying that democracy exists only on election day and that the interplay of opinion that characterizes democracy should be suspended the rest of the time."

Burglary Case Being Heard in Court Here

Pretrial cases were heard in Hempstead Circuit Court yesterday with Judge W. H. Arnold III presiding.

Scheduled for trial Tuesday was the State vs Jimmy Lee Lindsey, charged with burglary and grand larceny in connection with breaking into the Hempstead Farmers Store and taking a safe that contained $383 in money.

Slated for Thursday is the case of Donald Denham, charged with forgery and uttering.

The trial of Owen Noble Jr., Earl Muldrew, William Muldrew, Charles Clark and Charles Rodney Johnson, all charged with burglary and grand larceny, was set for jury trial Oct. 20. They are charged in connection with the burglary of Country Club No. 2.

In an appeal case from Municipal Court Tentelton Hieronymous, Fulton, was fined $100 and costs. He was charged with firing a gun into the side of a pickup truck occupied by two Hope youths. The incident occurred at night on a rural road that runs alongside Red River.

Will Brief School on Getting Aid

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Education Commissioner A. W. Ford said Monday that a briefing for administrators of bi-racial school districts on how to obtain federal aid to smooth the transition to an integrated school system would be held Friday at 10 a.m.

In a memorandum to school superintendents of bi-racial districts, Ford said he expected the U.S. Senate to override President Nixon's veto of the federal education bill which would provide the funding for desegregation aid. The House of Representatives overrode the bill last week.

Arkansas stands to receive about $4 million under the bill. Ford had scheduled the briefing last week, but that was before Nixon vetoed the bill.

Travel Expenses for Teachers

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Bob Compton of El Dorado, a Democratic candidate for governor, said here Monday that if elected he would set up guidelines under which teachers could deduct travel expenses to seminars from their state income tax.
